ALOISI LEAVES GENEVA AFTER SANCTIONS TILT

Council Resolves To Maintain Penalties Against Fascist Government.

DEFINITE BREAK SEEN

Rome Predicts Smashing of League as Pope Pleads for World Peace.

By The Associated Press.

Italian delegation, on Premier Mussolini's sudden command, left Geneva post haste today just before the League of Nations council formally resolved to maintain sanctions against the Fascist state.

The departing Italians said they did not attempt to interpret the instructions from Il Duce, but some league observers felt the move was the beginning of the end of Italian participation at Geneva.

From Rome came unofficial predictions that the league would be smashed; from Vatican City came Pope Pius' fervent prayer that the end of African war would be a prelude to true world peace."

Baron Pompeo Aloisi, apparently on orders direct from Premier Mussolini, informed the league secretary-general of his intentions.

Just previously, leading league council members had drafted a tacit condemnation of Italy's annexation of Ethiopia. Their resolution, product of a midnight meeting at which Italy was not present, stated the council needed time to reflect on a proper course.

Just what the sudden Italian decision meant was not immediately clear. Evan Baron Aloisi, Il Duce's No. 1 diplomat, admitted, "I do not know."

In Rome, reliable sources said a diplomatic break between Italy and Great Britain could not be avoided if the British continued to press for sanctions at Geneva.

Dino Grandi, Fascist ambassador to London, was reported under orders to try and make Great Britain "like" the Ethiopian annexation.

In Ethiopia, Fascists hinted the coronation of Victor Emmanuel as emperor of the primitive country might take place at the Holy City of Aksum, storied seat of the "real" Ark of the Covenant and the Ten Commandments.

Britain, in the Mediterranean, kept her naval powder dry. She began a practice mobilization of defense forces on strategic Malta, behind a curtain of deep secrecy.

MANAGEMENT OF CITY HOSPITAL TO CHANGE

Dayton Nurse To Take Over Duties as Superintendent Tomorrow.

Management of the Marion City hospital will be changed Wednesday, with the institution being placed under the direction of Miss Margaret R. Parker of Dayton as superintendent, as provided in legislation passed by city council a month ago.

Miss Parker was expected to arrive in the city this afternoon preparatory to taking over her new duties in the morning. Joe E. Grundy, present superintendent-manager, and Miss Carmelita O'Donnell, supervisor of nurses, whose positions were abolished, said they were not ready today to announce their plans for the immediate future. Mayor F. C. Smith, who originally requested the change at the hospital, said Miss O'Donnell has been offered a position on the hospital staff but that he did not yet know the nature of it.

Miss Parker, 45 years of age, is a graduate of Miami Valley hospital of Dayton. She was assistant superintendent of nurses in Minneapolis General hospital one year and for a period of 20 years, 1914 to 1934, she was connected with the Epworth hospital at South Bend, Ind., serving as superintendent the last 10 years there. Since she left South Bend she has been studying hospital administration at Columbia university, Mayor Smith said.

The position of superintendent-manager of the City hospital has been held by Mr. Grundy, who lives at 780 East Church street, since last Aug. 14. He was appointed by former Safety Director W. N. Sams at the request of former Mayor C. A. Bolin. Miss O'Donnell has been supervisor of nurses since last spring.

Changes at the hospital were vehemently protested by the Marion Academy of Medicine and the local chapter of the Pan-American Medical society, and by City Commissioner Clarence Hart and Mrs. Williams.

SENATORS GET NEW TAX PLAN

Wallace Suggests Processing and "Windfall" Levies and AAA Changes.

ROOSEVELT'S HANDS OFF

Informs Senate Finance Chief Problem of Revenue Raising Up to Congress.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 12.—New tax recommendations were submitted to the senate finance committee by Secretary Wallace today coincident with fresh indications that the house revenue bills would be revised drastically.

Strongly pointing toward much rewriting was the word passed on Capitol Hill that President Roosevelt had informed Chairman Harrison of the finance committee yesterday that it was up to congress to determine the tax methods of raising the revenue he had requested.

Revenue Main Issue

The important factor, the chief executive was represented as advising Harrison, was not so much the kind of taxes employed as it was that $620,000,000 be raised in permanent revenue and $500,000,000 through temporary levies.

This development gave impetus to the move within the committee to revise the house bill for taxing corporations on the basis of their undistributed income.

The finance committee unexpectedly reopened public hearings to permit Wallace to recommend:

New processing taxes to raise $220,564,000;

Enactment of the 80 per cent "windfall" tax on refunded processing taxes.

Amendments to the agricultural adjustment act to insure retention by the government of the almost one billion dollars collected in processing taxes.

Repeal Part of AAA

Repeal of those AAA provisions invalidated by the supreme court and reenactment of the others.

It had been reported previously in senate circles that the President would be willing to accept a bill retaining the present corporate tax structure with a surtax on undistributed corporate income. This contrasted with the house plan of repealing all existing corporate levies and replacing them with the undistributed profits tax.

Wallace contended the "windfall tax" was just because "with rare exceptions the processors did not absorb the processing taxes, but passed them on to consumers or back to the producers, and that hence the approximately $320,000,000 of impounded and otherwise uncollected taxes, lost by the government as a result of the supreme court's decision, represents an unjust enrichment or outright gift which should be recovered by the treasury."

PLANE CRASH KILLS TRIO IN WISCONSIN

Carl Ristow, 29, New Lisbon farmer.

Underdahl, a retired navy officer here for a visit with Wood, his cousin, had been taking relatives and neighboring farmers on sightseeing flights. Acceding to the pleas of his daughter, Ristow went up to give her a ride.

STOLL KIDNAPER ADMITS CRIME AFTER CAPTURE

Abductor of Kentucky Woman Caught in California and Flown to Louisville.

FACES TRIAL FOR LIFE

Federal Attorney Promises Battle Against Defense Plea of Insanity.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 12 — J. Edgar Hoover said today that Thomas H. Robinson Jr., arrested in Glendale, Calif., last night, has admitted kidnaping Mrs. Alice Speed Stoll, Louisville, Ky., society leader.

Robinson was brought to Louisville by department of justice agents by airplane.

The director of the federal bureau of investigation said Robinson told agents that his first plan was to kidnap C. C. Stoll, father-in-law of his victim. Finding that the elder Stoll was not at home, Hoover said his story continued, he went to the son's house, seeking a second possible male victim.

Can't Find Male Victim

When he could not find the younger Stoll, Hoover said, Robinson quickly decided to abduct young Mrs. Stoll.

In a cleanup coup at Glendale, Calif., last night, J. Edgar Hoover's men seized the pasty-faced youth with a penchant for dressing in women's clothes and a checkered past that included terms in a college and two insane asylums.

No Gunplay Involved

The 28-year-old Robinson, often called the "lone wolf kidnaper," surrendered without firing a shot and was hustled aboard a plane bound for Louisville. There, Federal Attorney Bunc Gardner announced that he would seek the death penalty and fight any defense plea of insanity.

Of the dozen federal agents who met the transport plane which brought the fugitive from California to Louisville two were armed with machine guns and one with a shotgun. The agents were under command of C. C. Dewey, agent in charge of the Louisville office of the department of justice. Once in the car, which was only 40 feet from where the plane landed, Robinson bent his head and pulled his hat over his face.

The transport plane, piloted by Milo H. Campbell and Frank Busch of Los Angeles, flew to Louisville from Glendale in 11 hours and 40 minutes, making only two stops, one at Albuquerque, N. M., and the other at Wichita, Kans., where it refueled.

Slept Part of Time

Pilot Campbell said Robinson slept part of the time, the prisoner was handcuffed to his seat during the entire trip.

Robinson's brown suit was rumpled and his tie-less shirt open at the neck. He appeared to be in good spirits and much heavier than descriptions of him sent out by the government.

The pilots said the four agents who accompanied Robinson here

RATE CUT APPROVED BY UTILITIES BOARD

C., D. & M. and Other Companies in This Area Granted Authority.

Official authorization to reduce its electric rates in Marion and seven other towns and villages in Marion, Delaware, Morrow and Union counties July 1 was granted the C., D. & M. Electric Co. today by the state utilities commission, The Associated Press reported.

The reduction in rates was announced by the company several days ago. The commission also authorized a further reduction on Jan. 1, 1937.

In Marion, the reduction will mean a savings of 14 2-7 per cent to the average domestic consumer, company officials said. The saving to consumers in other communities will be substantially the same.

The C., D. & M. Electric Co. also was given permission to reduce its rates in Caledonia and Magnetic Springs. The Morrow Public Service Co. was authorized to cut its electric rates in Ashley, Cardington and Edison, while the Mt. Gilead, Light, Heat & Power Co. received permission to make similar reductions in Mt. Gilead.

The first bracket of the present rate schedule will be dropped from seven cents a kilowat hour to six and one-half cents on July 1 and lowered to six cents on Jan. 1. Reductions also will be effective in higher consumption brackets.

COUNCIL GETS FIRST PROTEST

Business Man Declares Enforcement of Alley Parking Ban Hurts Sales.

PROBLEM TO BE STUDIED

Point to Additional Space Under 45-Degree Angle Plan in Busy Area.

The first formal protest against the new teeth placed in city traffic and parking laws was registered with city council last night by a local business man.

Arthur A. Van Atta, head of the Van Atta hardware store and the Van Atta Supply Co., in the rear of 181 West Center street, appeared before the body and in a brief talk, protested against strict enforcement of overtime parking and alley parking regulations, declaring the action is hurting business and is hampering business places in their delivery work.

Strict supervision of traffic and parking regulations and compulsory payment of fines assessed in municipal court for violations of the regulations was begun about two weeks ago at the suggestion of Councilmen Robert H. Stief and Welcome P. Cass Jr.

Mr. Van Atta called attention to the location of his wholesale business at the rear of the Van Atta Hardware Co. and pointed out that it was necessary for him to load stock for delivery in his business cars at the alley doors and that he received business calls from local and out-of-town retail dealers who must park near the supply concern.

Cars Tagged Twice

Mr. Van Atta told council a police tag was placed on his stock car last Friday afternoon and again Saturday morning. He declared that he, along with other Marion business men, are now helping to pay the salaries of a part of the police force and that he resents this handicap to his business. Mr. Van Atta called council's attention to complaints he said he has heard throughout Marion and nearby counties from people who trade here. He said retail dealers who do business with his company also have registered complaints with him.

"There must be some intelligent way we can remedy this situation and still have reasonable enforcement of the traffic and parking rules," he declared. Mr. Van Atta pointed to the width of the alley adjoining the supply company and declared there is plenty of space available for passing traffic even with one-way parking. He suggested that council provide some means for one-way parking in wide alleys.

When he had concluded Mayor F. C. Smith told council the same situation had been called to his attention by other business concerns and suggested that the matter be referred to proper council committees for study. "It seems to me that some feasible plan could be

Primary Vote in County And State Falling Below Estimates Of Officials

Morning Balloting Light With Democrats Likely To Exceed G. O. P.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., May 12—A light voting trend marked Ohio's morning primary balloting throughout most of this politically important state today.

Despite a fight between the regular Republican organization and a liberal faction championing Sen. William E. Borah to select the state's delegates to the national convention, observers predicted the Democratic vote would exceed the Republican for the first time.

George Neffner, election expert of the secretary of state's office, said the Democrats probably would cast their largest primary vote in history. He also estimated a total primary vote of 1,360,000, a record

Two Cities Have Heavy Vote

Columbus and Cleveland were the only large cities to report a heavy morning vote. The trend of Cincinnati, Toledo, Dayton and Youngstown was light.

Ideal weather was expected to help municipalities to pile up a high vote, but to reduce the balloting in rural areas. Farmers were far behind in their work and took advantage of the good weather to cultivate their fields.

A ballot printing error was straightened out quickly at Youngstown.

No disturbances were reported, but at Cleveland policemen guarded polling booths and investigators from the secretary of state's office kept a close watch.

Robert A. Taft, the regulars' "favorite son," was represented by a full slate of 52 delegate-candidates, while Borah put in the field 35 candidates, letting 17 convention seats go to Taft without a contest.

Roosevelt vs. Breckinridge

On the Democratic ballots, Col. Henry Breckinridge of New York clinched with President Franklin D. Roosevelt for the presidential preference indorsement, an impotent contest in that its results will not bind convention delegates or affect their selection.

Borah challenged as a subtior-

Survey Shows 727 Ballots Cast in 10 Precincts at Noon.

County election officials lowered their earlier estimates of the county's primary vote today after they had been furnished the results of a checkup of 10 scattered precincts made by The Star at noon.

The Star's survey showed 727 votes had been cast in 10 precincts at noon. Of the total, 398 were Republican ballots and 329 were Democratic.

On the basis of information from this survey, county election officials said the county's total vote may not pass the 10,000 mark whereas earlier estimates had placed the total around 14,000.

Election officials, however, said they felt the rural vote of the county might be increased markedly if rainfall, threatened at noon, came this afternoon and halted farm work. Otherwise, they said scores of farmers probably will not leave their work to go to the polls.

It was estimated both by county and precinct election officials that the number of votes cast in the precincts surveyed at noon represented approximately one-third of the total vote that will be cast in those precincts by 6:30 tonight when the polls close.

Vote Considered Normal

Most of the precinct election officials questioned by The Star said they regarded the number of votes cast at noon as "normal" for that time of day in a presidential primary. Two said the voting was light, one said it appeared to be unusually heavy.

If the county's vote today reaches the 10,000 mark, it will exceed the total number of ballots cast in the last two presidential primaries. In 1932 the total vote in this county was 7,027 of which 4,413 were Republican ballots and 3,514 were Democratic. In 1928 the total vote was 9,186 of which 6,312 were Republican ballots and 2,874 were Democratic.

The precincts surveyed at noon by The Star and the number of ballots cast in each at that time follow:

Precinct A of the First Ward, 52 Republican and 30 Democratic; Precinct B of the First ward, 52 Republican and 36 Democratic; Precinct D of the First ward, 27 Democratic and 21 Republican; Precinct A of the Second ward, 41 Democratic and 24 Republican; Precinct B of the Second ward, 43 Democratic and 31 Republican; Precinct A of the Third ward, 45 Republican and 35 Democratic; Precinct A of the Fifth ward, 49 Republican and 42 Democratic; Precinct B of the Sixth ward, 60 Republican and 61 Democratic; Marion township North, 23 Republican and 12 Democratic; Marion township South, 29 Republican and 13 Democratic.

A checkup this morning showed little evidence of betting. Five bets were posted and two were taken. Three were 15 even that Grant E. Mouser Jr. will win the Republican nomination for Eighth district congressman. None of these was taken. Two others were $5 even that J. Wilbur Jacoby of Marion is elected Eighth district member of the Democratic state central committee over the present committeeman, Dr. C. J. Altmaier, seeking reelection. Both of these were taken.

STAR WILL GIVE PRIMARY REPORTS

The Star has completed arrangements to receive and report returns from the primary election tonight.

The public is invited to hear bulletins from state, district and county which will be read over a loud-speaker system in The Star auditorium. The doors will open at 8 and first reports are expected shortly after that hour.

Tables and chairs will be placed at a convenient point for all who wish to tabulate returns.

Special telephone service will be provided for all who wish to hear the news at their homes or offices. Call The Star's number, 2314, for reports at any time during the night.

MANSFIELD MAN ADMITS SLAYING

CINCINNATI VOTES ON COUNCIL SETUP

Move To Repeal Proportional Representation System Draws 90,000 to 100,000.

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, O., May 12—Cincinnatians went to the polls today in a predicted total of between 90,000 and 100,000, with only casual interests in candidates, but excited over a proposal to repeal the "proportional representation" system of selecting the city's councilmen.

Even the name of a native son, Robert A. Taft, as "favorite son" candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, failed to arouse much interest.

Of the attention given to aspirants for office, most appeared centered on two men indorsed by the National Union for Social Justice for congress—Joseph A. Dixon, a department store employe, in the First district, and Councilman Herbert S. Bigelow in the Second.

In two congressional districts traditionally Republican, there was interest, too, in word from election headquarters that for the first time in more than a decade, the Republican party cast fewer absent-voter ballots than the Democrats.

BRAVERY IN SAVING LIFE WINS MEDAL FOR SAILOR

Man Who Enlisted Here Cited by Navy Secretary for Heroism in Rescuing Man from Drowning.

A former Marion man now in the United States navy has been commended by the secretary of the navy for bravery in rescuing a fellow sailor and has been recommended to the secretary of the treasury for award of a silver life saving medal, according to word received from the Lima recruiting office of the navy.

He is Philip Earl Sanders, boatswain's mate second class, whose home address is listed in navy files as 200 Franconia avenue, Marion, where his mother-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Bruce, now lives.

Mr. Sanders is the husband of the former Miss Helen Bruce who attended Harding High school here and went to California 11 years ago where she met and married Sanders. They have lived in California since that time excepting for a visit to the Bruce home several years ago.

Letter from Navy Head

The secretary of the navy, in a communication to Sanders, said:

"The commanding officer of the U. S. S. Lexington has brought to the attention of the department your commendable action in rescuing John Aloysius Novak, seaman second class, U. S. Navy, from drowning.

"It appears that on Nov. 10, 1935, John Aloysius Novak fell overboard in attempting to come aboard from a ship's boat at the port quarter boom. At this time you were engaged in routine work in the laundry issuing room, which

JUDGE YOUNG SENTENCES 3

David Hintze Gets Jail Term After Plea of Guilty In Auto Killing.

FOSTER GOES TO PRISON

Given One to Fifteen Years for Breaking Into Center St. Store.

Three of six prisoners indicted on criminal charges by the May grand jury were sentenced by Judge Hector S. Young in common pleas court today when they changed pleas of not guilty to guilty.

Those sentenced were David Hintze, 45, Robert Foster and Randy McGinty.

Hintze, indicted on two charges of second degree manslaughter and leaving the scene of an accident in connection with the hit and run traffic death of Miss Gertrude Seckel, was sentenced to six months in the Marion county jail when he entered a plea of guilty to the latter charge. Judge Young also suspended his driving rights until April 1 of next year, placed him on parole for one year after completion of his jail sentence, and fined him $200, the fine to be suspended pending his good behavior during the period of parole. The second degree manslaughter charge has not yet been dismissed.

Foster Gets Prison Term

Foster was sentenced to an indeterminate term of one to 15 years in the Ohio penitentiary when he changed a plea of not guilty to guilty to a charge of breaking and entering. The charge grew out of the burglary of the Marty flat shop on West Center street last January.

Randy McGinty was given a sentence of from one to 10 years in the Ohio penitentiary on his plea of guilty to a statutory charge filed in connection with the alleged molesting of his two daughters, aged 16 and 19. Another charge is still hanging over McGinty, but is expected to be dismissed within a few days.

Carter M. Patton represented Hintze, Theodore B. Ochs represented Foster, and Homer E. Johnson was counsel for McGinty.

Speaks for Hintze

While none of the prisoners had anything to say before sentence was passed on them Attorney Patton spoke in behalf of Hintze, pointing out that he has lived here a number of years and that he has worked in the city service department for some time. He declared that the death of Miss Seckel was accidental and did not warrant a charge of manslaughter being filed against his client.

Today's developments leaves only three criminal cases to be tried before petit juries in common pleas court this month. The three remaining indicted persons and the charges against them are Pierre Hatlick, non-support, David E. Keck, rape, and William S. Patterson, two charges of issuing checks without funds.

Their trial dates have not yet been set.

ACT TO SHARE IN STATE FUND

Increases Averaging 13 Per Cent To Be Retroactive to January 1.

PAYMENTS COME LATER

Action Taken To Enable Schools To Receive $199,000 Under Foundation Plan.

Teachers' salary adjustments increasing the pay of instructors, principals and vocational employes $29,145 in order that Marion public schools meet the requirements for participation in the state school foundation program, were approved by the board of education at a meeting last night in the administration building on South Prospect street.

Approval was on the basis of a schedule recommended by Supt. C. A. Hudson after a study of the fundation law which requires that each district meet definite salary requirements. The increases average 13 per cent.

Increases will be for the period from January, 1936, when a resolution to meet the requirements was passed, until June, 1936, but Supt. Hudson and the board members said the assumption will be when teachers are hired for the 1936-37 school years that the same increases will be in effect. A called meeting of the board to hire teachers for next year probably will be held within two weeks.

The increases will be retroactive and back payments will be made for this year when actual funds from the state program are available.

Small Part in Cash

In March the city received the first distribution of state funds for 1936, amounting to $49,523.14, but of the sum $11,697.86 was in cash and the remaining $37,825.28 in the form of a certificate against which the board may borrow in anticipation of later collection from the state. The board has not drawn against the certificate, thus making a saving in interest payments, which would have to be met by the Marion board.

The second state payment, amounting to approximately $49,000, is expected in June. The foundation program payments to the city schools are in keeping with the anticipated revenue of $199,000 for the year.

Adjustments approved last night will partially restore three pay cuts totaling about 24 per cent which teachers have taken in the last several years.

Mr. Hudson prepared his schedule for the board with a minimum requirement of two years of college training in the elementary field and four years in both junior and senior high schools.

With less than two years of college training in the elementary field and four years in the junior high school the salaries will be determined by the type of service given by the teacher.

Teachers in the junior high schools who do not meet with the training requirements will be placed on the elementary salary scale. Elementary teachers who take additional training for their work and receive a degree in elementary education, will be allowed $10 per month additional. Master degrees in either junior or senior high schools will carry an additional $10 per month.

Schedule of Salaries

The schedule drawn by Mr. Hudson and approved unanimously by the board on the motion of Don A. Howard and the second of Dr. H. T. Morgan, follows:

Years of Experience	Elementary	Jr. High	Sr. High
1	$ 90	$110	$120
2	90	110	120
3	90	120	130
4	100	130	140
5	105	140	150
6	110	150	160
7	115	160	170
8	120	170	180
9	125	180	190
10	130	190	200
11	135		210*
12	140

*This amount to be paid for extra service or meritorious work upon the recommendation of the superintendent.

The school foundation program, set up by the Traxler-Kiefer, Matthews act which was passed last year by the state legislature, and under which the salary adjustments of last night were made, prescribes that $30.00 per pupil be paid school districts on the average daily attendance basis for elementary children and $45 per pupil for high school children.

Under these per-pupil rates, Marion will receive approximately $200,000 of state money for operating purposes, according to Mr. Hudson.

It is mandatory that 75 per cent of the total cost of the foundation program, state and local, in each district, shall be spent for teachers' salaries, which in Marion, until the adjustments were approved, have

STOCKS SLUMP AFTER UPTURN

Trading Turns Irregular in Closing Hour With Volume at Lowest Ebb.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, May 12—An early rising stock market tide backed up in the final hour today, substituting losses for gains of fractions to 2 points in many instances.

It was another one of the dullest sessions since last summer. The close was irregular. Transfers were around 650,000 shares.

The market did fairly well in the morning, but the advance on an extremely small volume tended to discourage recovery proponents and some of these, buyers at one time, turned sellers. The turnover was not much larger on the reaction than on the upturn.

Stocks that held improvement included Allied Chemical, Columbian Carbon, Continental Can, Montgomery Ward and Sears Roebuck.

Among the less favored were J. I. Case, Deere, American Agricultural Chemical, Standard Oil of California, Bethlehem and Auburn. Many issues were unchanged.

Wheat ended off ¾ to 1⅞ cents a bushel and corn was unchanged to down ⅛. Bonds were steady and foreign currencies irregular.

Domestic industrial news was more cheerful than otherwise. Preliminary estimates indicated that car loadings for the week ended May 9, amounted to around 680,000, which would be a new top for the year and compare with 671,134 in the preceding week and 575,000 in the comparable week last year.

In view of the New York Central's income statement for 1935, disclosing a profit of $115,045 against a deficit the year before of $7,602,334, the railway situation came in for further study in the boardrooms.

At the beginning of foreign exchange transactions the French franc was off .00½ of a cent at 6.59½ cents, and sterling was up ½ of a cent at $4.96¾.

A little wool was reported to be moving at this level, but most holders were rather firm at 82@83 cents or above.

Vallee Marital Joust Heads for Divorce Court

By The Associated Press

LOS ANGELES, May 11—Rudy Vallee's former "dream girl" showed their known romance toward a divorce court today to settle final date separations, disagreement of three years ago.

Fay Webb, darling-eyed daughter of the Santa Monica police chief, emerged the only winner in a compromise reached by what her attorney, Ben C. Cohen, termed a "satisfactory and amicable adjustment of their financial affairs."

Cohen said Vallee would not contest the divorce.

The suit virtually ended a five-year story of marriage spotted with bickering, aloof by friends and girl friends, four occasions of making up again and renewed farewells.

The couple's difficulties reached a high point when their marriage in April, 1929, when Mrs. Vallee sought to have voided an agreement under which she received $200 a week.

Against testimony that Vallee misrepresented his financial condition when he wife signed the agreement, the counsel at that time sought to show that she was indifferent with Guy Lean, singer dancer.

The divorce suit made no mention of any other woman in Vallee's life, nor of the dancer.

The complaint of the band leader's wife recited a series of incidents to show he "ungovernable temper," "great emotional outbursts," and strong theatrical life supposed her health, destroyed her peace of mind and made her lose weight.

The discovered Novak lowered to unconsciousness by the rough sea and serious backwash from the ship's side caused by heavy swells. Without hesitation put that submerged through the small port with much difficulty and fully clothed dived into the sea. At the same time a life rope was dropped into the water from the flight deck. Despite the impediment of clothing and the dangerous state of the sea, you (quote) rescued Novak, who had come to the surface after sinking very near and grasped him to the life saving floating buoy. You then succeeded after strenuous effort in bringing Novak, who was nearly exhausted and nearly dead to land in the 15 foot longboat the nearest to the point of the disaster soon.

"You have been recommended to the secretary of the treasury for the award of a silver life saving medal in recognition of your act.

and in difficulty with the prisoner.

Fred Campbell and Robinson "talked" with the agents and were at times. When joined in the "if the police knew" Robinson replied laughingly. "It's been a hell of a job, rather be paying my own way."

Taken to U. S. Office

Robinson was taken to the federal bureau of investigation office on the seventh floor of a Louisville office building.

Agents placed him in a private room and pulled down the shades.

Shortly afterward one of the agents took a sheaf of papers from one of the files and returned to the room where Robinson was.

Mrs. Stoll, wife of Berry Stoll, wealthy oil man, was shipped with a lead pipe before being taken from her home in the $50,000 kidnaping in the fall of 1934. The federal law provides a death penalty when a victim suffers bodily harm.

The seizure of Robinson was the climax of an 18-day campaign of secret work in which federal agents assisted by John Harpe, Berry Campbell and William Moran.

Wife Cook Gives Tip

A wife-seeking Pasadena cook gave apparently gave the agents the tip that led to Robinson's capture. The cook, Lynn Allen, stated that a "woman" customer spoke of a mountain in an evident attempt to disguise her voice.

Questioning of her waiter, he stated that they were "stuck" and her pack "mountain." So he told the police of the suspicions and gave them the number of the customer's sedan.

Soon after the capture, the agents of the federal bureau of investigation learned the word to their chief here. Hoover was attending a prize fight, but he left it instantly and called reporters to his office.

"We've got Robinson," he smiled. Took him in Glendale, Cal.

"He admitted his identity and will be removed immediately to Louisville. When taken, he had $4,500 on his person, of which $4,200 was fresh currency."

"Any shots fired?" he was asked.

Carried Revolver

"No shots were fired. But Robinson was carrying a .38 caliber revolver when he was arrested."

"Was he dressed like a woman at the time of his arrest?"

"No," Hoover replied, "but he's given a description."

Hoover said the stolen check had been living in Glendale for two months, under the name of "Jean Gilmore."

The "blond woman" disguise attributed to him was reported many many cities at various times of the hunt. A lock of hair in the auto was the only distinguished physical characteristic of the two hunt trails from Nashville, Tenn.

Robinson Visited Springfield Home

By The Associated Press

SPRINGFIELD, O., May 11—Before the arrest of Thomas J. Robinson Jr., in Glendale, Calif., one of the last tangible clues left by the suspected kidnaper of Mrs. Alice Speed Stoll of Louisville was of a brief home here.

Part of the $35,000 ransom money was given Mrs. Edna Zechweiler, tourist home proprietor, by a man she said "was every bit a gentleman" and whom federal agents identified through fingerprints and appeared to be known to Robinson.

Mrs. Zechweiler wanted to know today "all about" the capture of Robinson.

Came from Indianapolis

Federal agents said Robinson came here Oct. 14, 1934, directly from Indianapolis, where his wife had turned over to him the $35,000 paid for the release of the socially prominent Louisville woman, who had been held prisoner in an apartment there six days.

After the flight from here Robinson was reported next in several places, but the clues he left in Mrs. Zechweiler's home were among the most tangible ones to be found by investigators until they picked up the trail in California.

Two other principals in the international case, Rev. and Mrs. E. Arnold Clegg of Indianapolis, in whose home Mrs. Stoll was released after the kidnaping, were in Columbus attending the quadrennial general Methodist conference.

"I am very happy to learn that he has been caught," said Mr. Clegg, pastor of the Capitol Avenue Methodist Episcopal church. "It comes as a complete surprise to me."

He said his wife, a cousin of Mrs. Stoll, would make no statement.

Wants All News

Mrs. Zechweiler was sitting up in her home when reporters informed her of the capture.

"You don't mean to tell me they've got him!" she exclaimed. "Come in and tell me about it."

She was anxious to know if she would be called to identify Robinson.

Howard Hamm, acting agent in charge of the Columbus office of the department of justice, greeted the news with:

"That's swell."

The Columbus office was the party leader of the hunt for months.

In Tennessee Asylum

Robinson, once an inmate of the Tennessee State Insane asylum, was considered perhaps the most elusive of the kidnap fugitives, being credited with several disguises.

Known as a "good will" criminal, he had been trailed by G-men nearly two years since the $200,000 kidnaping of Mrs. Stoll, wife of Berry V. Stoll, Louisville, Ky., oil man, and niece of Frederic M. Sackett, former United States ambassador and former ambassador to Germany.

Both Robinson's father, T. J. Robinson, and his wife, Mrs. T. M. Robinson Jr., were investigated in the kidnap plot but were acquitted to the full of time.

worked out to remedy this traffic situation,' he said.

Given To Committee

Replying to a question from Councilman Wayne Rogers the mayor said an ordinance making parking space would be available in the uptown business section under the old 45 degree angle parking, which was discarded last fall in favor of the present 30 degree angle method. The change was made after the state highway department had protested against the parking and traffic situation in Marion, citing complaints registered with the state by tourists and out-of-town residents.

Council President E. C. Sours referred the matter to the street and alley committee for study. The committee is to report back to council at an early date.

Sours also referred to the police committee a proposal that police be permitted to discard leather puttees during the summer months in favor of more comfortable uniform equipment. The proposal was made by Councilman Harry D. Cahill.

W. F. Case, chairman of the city park board, called councilmen's attention to lack of funds for park improvements and asked council to find some remedy for the situation. Councilman Cora Jr. suggested that all revenue derived from parks, which now goes into the general fund, be spent in the maintenance of the parks. The matter was referred to the finance committee and ordinance and finance committee for study.

Fifty existing $1,000 it were approved. The board discussed the purchase of a new power lawn mower for use at the stadium and on the large school lawns, and approved the superintendent's recommendations for repairs at several of the buildings, particularly the roofs of Vernon Morgan Junior high school and the George Washington school. The annual report of the board of trustees of the city library was accepted.

Preceding the meeting of the board members were entertained at dinner by the ninth grade pupils of the Central Junior High school. The dinner was served at the school.

The next meeting of the board will be held June 3.

County Districts Already Complying

The 12 county school districts were already compliant with the foundation program's require-ments as regard to teacher sal-aries, Dr. T. Mills, superintendent of county schools, said today. It was necessary for only seven of the 12 districts to increase the previous scale, he said.

Although the seven school boards have acted on the require-ment, in some cases insufficient funds have been made available for full payment to the teachers, Supt. Mills said. It is expected that an anticipated payment of funds from the foundation program early in June will be used to pay the full amount of the increase.

In the seven schools where pay increases were necessary, they ranged from 6 per cent to 30 per cent, with an average of approxi-mately 15 per cent. Only two schools, districts in Marion county had difficulty during the past year in meeting the payroll, and at present all except one have paid salaries in full Supt. Mills said.

MORNING BALLOTING IS LIGHT IN STATE

Says the organization's devotion and progress and entered a partial democratic candidate slate to promi-nent as incumbents struggle main-tenance of the 1930 campaign be-tween Gen. Leonard Wood and another favorite son, the late Presi-dent Warren G. Harding.

Election officials anticipated slow tabulations, caused by punch-ing ballots bearing more than the names it would larger counties to allow down to county clerks. Ohio Political Battleground

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 11—Ohio's broad political arena, scene of pre-liminary skirmishing for many months, became today a general theater of operations for wearing factions of both major parties.

Observers in the capital awaited the results as voters of the fourth most populous state balloted in the Democratic and Republican pri-maries. The total vote was expect-ed to approximate 1,300,000, a record.

Tax Vs. Beer Tie

On the Republican side the prime struggle was the presidential con-test between Sen. Borah of Idaho and Robert A. Taft, Cincinnati pol-itician of the Buckeye State's Re-publican organization.

On the Democratic side President Roosevelt was opposed by Henry Breckinridge of New York, who previously lost to the chief execu-tive in Maryland and Pennsylvania.

Borah also is entered in today's West Virginia primary election, which is expected to bring out 400,000 voters because of a struggle between the state's two Democratic senators, Rush D. Holt and M. M. Neely.

Borah's only opponent there is Lee J. Chesser of Milwaukee, Wis. On the Democratic side President Roosevelt is opposed by Joseph A. Guarnaccia of New Hampshire.

Besides the ballot box tests there were several other political devel-opments.

Keen in Oregon

Col. Frank Knox of Chicago cer-tified his candidacy for the Repub-lican presidential nomination over Oregon last night and assailed the new deal.

"I challenge the new deal as an expression of reactionism," he declared at a Republican rally in Portland.

Secretary Roper in a radio ad-dress last night appealed to busi-ness to avoid "irresponsible" and to discourage "all efforts to create unjustifiable political tension" dur-ing the presidential campaign.

Aside from the primaries today's activities included Democratic state conventions in Delaware and North Dakota and a Republican convention in Vermont.

Both parties held conventions yesterday in Wyoming.

The Democrats instructed their 12 delegates with no votes, to work for the renomination of President Roosevelt, while the Republicans chose an uninstructed delegation.

Hindenburg Off On Return Trip To German Port

Zeppelin Leaves Lakehurst Visits New York and Speeds Over Sea to Friedrichshafen.

By The Associated Press

LAKEHURST, N. J., May 11—The Hindenburg has only a short stay today—but the Ger-man dirigible was a silver queen of mid-America and the line was being drawn across the skies between Lakehurst and Friedrichshafen, Ger-many.

With 46 passengers aboard, the huge Zeppelin which spanned the Atlantic in nearly two weeks half of the journey now lowest ever was shortened a mid spring night, made a second contact at sea New York City and then headed out over the Atlantic.

The Hindenburg was starting the return journey of the first of 10 round trips planned for the summer between Germany and the United States—trips which Dr. Hugo Eckener, president of the Zeppelin Co., hopes will bring the establishment of a permanent Ger-man-American commerce in the North Atlantic skies.

The scenery lifted gracefully from the sandy surface of the Lakehurst naval air station at 10:37:5 p. m. Eastern Time, headed into the southerly wind for a mile, turned eastward and then pointed its silver nose at the north.

Within an hour it passed over New York. From there it course followed the great circle route, the shortest path to Europe over the Atlantic.

Its officers were hopeful of reaching the home port in Friede-hafen-On-Main in six or seven hours under the record time of 61 hours 47 minutes it established on the westward trip which ended here on Saturday.

Bulkley Predicts Dirigible Building

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 11 — Sen. Robert J. Bulkley of Ohio pre-dicted a renewal of airship build-ing today as the Germans Zep-pelin Hindenburg sailed away on its return flight.

Bulkley, author of a bill pro-posing a $6,000,000 dirigible pro-gram, spoke following the visit of Dr. Hugo Eckener, German Zep-pelin expert, to Washington yes-terday.

"There is no use in it to say airships will not work," Sen. Bulk-ley said. "These Germans are proving they will be actual per-formance."

MOVE TO STRENGTHEN M.E. DRY BOARD GAINS

Delegates at Columbus Ap-prove Revision as Step Toward Dr. Wilson Ouster.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., May 11 — A move to give the general confer-ence of the Methodist Episcopal church greater power over its board on temperance, prohibition and public morals gained headway today.

Delegates to the quadrennial conference approved a committee report to revise the constitution of the board.

Adoption of the plan was sent by conference leaders as a move to oust Dr. Clarence True Wilson, founder and for 34 years secre-tary secretary of the board.

Before considering the committee report the delegates heard Dr. G. Bromley Oxnam, president of DePauw university, Greencastle, Ind., withdraw as a candidate for one of four bishop vacancies.

Dr. Oxnam needed only 67 votes to win election when he an-nounced his withdrawal.

The proposed change in the board setup would provide for the election of the executive secretary by the general conference instead of by the board members.

Members of the board also would be nominated by the bishops and elected by the conference to represent all areas of the church. At present members are not chosen geographically.

Among those expected to oppose Dr. Wilson for election as execu-tive secretary were

Dr. Deets Pickett, assistant sec-retary of the board and brother of Bishop J. Waskom Pickett of Lucknow, India; Dr. Ernest Cher-rington of California, an executive of the Anti-Saloon league, and Dr. Edmund J. Kelly, Kansas City, Mo., pastor.

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, May 11—The Kasper quadruplets, Frances, Frank, Ferdinand and Felix, were "doing fine" today and progressing consistently.

FRAZIER-LEMKE BILL WILL GO UNCHANGED

Foes and Advocates Plan No Compromise on Farm Debt Measure.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 11—There was little optimistic comment over the Frazier-Lemke farm relief refinancing bill as congress began debating it on the floor but it is understood Democratic leaders intend to allow as few amend-ments to the bill as possible.

"We want to vote it up or down just as it stands," said Majority Leader Rainbow, Democrat of Arkansas.

There is no way to suppress open fight on some of it."

Rep. Lemke, Republican of North Dakota, denied the measure is inflationary.

The bill calling for $2,000,000,000 in new money was taken from the Frazier-Lemke farm mortgage moratorium measure, which is now law.

The Ohio senate investigation which led to discovery the senate rules committee room scandals was con-clusion of the Frazier-Lemke bill. Four Democrats were passed, one Re-publican.

SYNOPSIS: Although it is Rupert Joris who has married the mysterious Hope Devine very suddenly, it is Rupert's brother Dirk who seems to feel most responsible for her. Now, returning late from the theater, he sees Hope take a taxi at the gates of the Joris estate and drive into New York, meet a strange and forlorn-looking young man, and disappear in New York's scrubby East side. She comes back later, but volunteers no explanation of her escapade.

CHAPTER 15.
Amateur Detective.

HOPE did not come down to breakfast, and Rupert had already left when Dirk, later than usual, started for the office. Dirk, having, with mixed motives, taken himself the office of spy, had visited Rupert's room before leaving as he had visited Hope's the night before.

Hope might safely have brought the gems back with her, but he saw no way of looking in the cache this morning. There was a chance that Rupert had them now. In that case, he knew where to look.

He found the jewel-box in the inner drawer of Rupert's desk, the strand of pearls lying loose beside it, the contents intact. Hope's companion had not robbed her, nor permitted her to be robbed.

Hope, herself, when he saw her that evening, seemed much the same—a bit tired, for, as she explained, she had been shopping again. She and Rupert had lunched together. They had also looked at cars, and they had a disagreement regarding them. Rupert wished her to have a town-car and a chauffeur. Hope wanted a coupe, and to drive it herself.

"What do you think?" Rupert asked Dirk at dinner.

Dirk was in favor of the chauffeur. Hope's eyes met his with the shadow of surprise. Apparently she had expected him to take her side.

She had shown no inclination to confide in him, though there had been opportunity. Before dinner Dirk had sat with her in the library. She had shown him the guitar she had bought that day, and played and sung for him. He would not soon forget the picture.

He had not known the room could be so beautiful. The presence of Hope had seemed to draw out its latent colors, to warm and kindle it. And now she filled it with song.

Her voice had for Dirk the disturbing quality of her eyes. A rich voice, liquid and warm and deep. She sang plaintive things, a little dark-haired Lorelei in a blue dress, in the firelight. Dirk had not let the vision, the song, lure him to complete forgetfulness.

He said, when she had stopped singing, and sat plucking cords looking at the fire—said with every intention of disturbing her:

"I saw you last night."

She gave him her swift dark glance, and he added.

"At 'The Black Swan.' You looked wonderful."

Her eyes had gone back to the fire. She asked.

"Was that Isabel beside you—the one in pink?"

So she had seen him, too. And who had told her about Isabel? Rupert, no doubt.

Yes, it was Isabel, he said. "She wants to meet you. I waited around last night after I got home. Wanted to ask what you thought of the play. You must have got in first."

She said that she was not sure. At any rate, she had been sleepy, and had gone straight to her room. Which was no doubt true.

Rupert came in the library then, and must be shown the new guitar, must be sung to. She sang again in Spanish, the most tender, the most passionate of all her songs. Her eyes moved now and then to Rupert's face, ecstasy and pathos in her glance.

Rupert liked the song. He asked what the words meant.

"It is a song," she said, "about a little turkey."

Dirk laughed outright, feeling a distinct relief. He supposed it, of course, a love-song. Rupert too laughed, asked her to sing again. She sang a cowboy song, swinging and valiant, tapping her small blue-slippered foot. A song full of hi-yi's, and git-along's, that ended in a fine, clear whoop. Rupert was delighted.

At dinner it was learned that Elinor had called that afternoon, Elinor and her aunt, Mrs. Raeburn, Isabel's mother. No one had been at home, and Elinor had left a note. She wished to give a party for Rupert's wife. Would dinner a week from Thursday be agreeable?

Rupert affected indifference. If Hope wanted to be entertained, he had, he said, no objection. Dirk knew that they would go. Later, alone with Rupert he brought up the subject of the car.

"Hope probably knows nothing about driving in New York. I'll find the right chauffeur, if you like."

Rupert was glad to be relieved. He agreed that Hope was safer with a chauffeur.

"It's the formality he wants," Dirk thought. "So much the better."

By Saturday Dirk, who had had no difficulty in tracing the green taxicab finally found its driver at home. He and another lad drove the cab for a man in Harlem.

The day driver had been easy enough to find, but the night driver appeared never to take time for sleep. Dirk caught him, however, a toughened bachelor with no memory for dates or places Dirk, who had discovered this lack by obscure processes learned at the bar, finally said:

"Suppose I told you that last Monday morning at exactly three o'clock you wrecked my car, parked in Lockett Street in Brooklyn. I'll say you didn't know it, since you were going so fast, but here's your number."

Three o'clock was the moment when Dirk, detained by a red light, had seen the green cab vanish in the direction of East River. But the driver could be forced into no enlightening alibi.

"Well, suppose you told me," he remarked. "I'd say see the cab-owner, or the bonding company."

Dirk replaced the notation of hour and number in his pocket. "Since you recall the accident..." he observed.

"I don't recall no accident. I run this cab all over Long Island, New Jolsy. If I remembered things I'd go nuts. You see the binding company."

Dirk said that he would, and left, calling himself a sorry detective. Had he roused the man's suspicions? He could not tell. Certainly the man had increased his own. It had been no casual taxi that Hope had signaled.

Rupert had bought a fashionable town-car that morning, and Dirk went from the cab-driver's house to call on Genevieve, his one-time nurse. Genevieve had married a moderately successful plumber. A widow now, she lived in the Bronx with her son Martin, a steady, clean-eyed lad of twenty-one.

Martin and Dirk had played together as children and often in the last two years Dirk had ridden out of his way to turn in at the garage where Martin worked and have the boy look at his gas or change a tire. It was Martin he had in mind when he promised Rupert to find the right chauffeur. Martin could hardly believe his luck at the prospect of work in Mister Dirk's family. Dirk knew his love and loyalty, and while Rupert might find some fault with his youth, Dirk knew, too, that Martin's skill with a car, his good sense and habits, and perhaps most of all, the appearance of his fine young figure in the Joris livery would have their effect.

When Genevieve had gone out he gave Martin a brief version of the situation. Mrs. Joris, without her knowledge was to be guarded and protected. Martin, also without her knowledge was to make careful note of what places she visited, or whom she took into the car. These were to be reported to Dirk Mr. Rupert Joris was in no way concerned.

"You are doing this for me. And you are to keep absolutely quiet. You are also Mrs. Joris's chauffeur, and at her command. You will be paid for both jobs."

Martin said that he understood, and believed that he did. It was he considered, like the job of a friend of his, chauffeur and guard to a child whose wealthy father had received threats from kidnapers. Mister Dirk had no doubt got wind of some such conspiracy against his sister-in-law.

"You can depend on me, Mister Dirk."

Martin, Dirk felt, was enough for the daytime, but, a chauffeur at her command, or not, nothing was to prevent Hope from making nocturnal excursions in a taxi, if she felt so inclined. He therefore stationed two detectives near the Joris gates at night.

Dirk knew that Hope had not been out at night since Monday, except in Rupert's company. He had himself kept watch. Now he could sleep.

Hope passes, tomorrow, through a difficult situation.

Married Comrades

BY ADELE GARRISON

Tired and Dusty, Men Make Ready for Dinner.

NEITHER Lillian nor I put a single question to our husbands concerning their interview with Noel during the first two hours following their return from the city.

We have conjugated the moods and tenses of our men so long that we are almost letter-perfect in our knowledge, and if, as sometimes happens, we are compelled to act contrary to that knowledge we are fully prepared to meet any possible domestic squalls.

Fatigued and dusty from their journey, we were not surprised to hear them vociferously announce their intention of showering forthwith.

"If there is time before dinner, we might run down to the ocean and have a dip," Dicky said.

No Time for Dip

"Really, the dinner is nearly enough ready, so that it would be completely spoiled by the time you returned from the beach," I said mendaciously, and Lillian, with an ease born of long practice, bolstered my assertion.

"Don't, for the love of all the bearded prophets, risk another domestic cataclysm!" she adjured Dicky.

"I could do with a dip," her big husband said regretfully, "but I guess our numbers are up, Dicky bird. The oracles have spoken, and we might as well shower prosaically."

"All right, all right," Dicky assented reluctantly. Then he turned to me with burlesqued truculence.

"Heaven help you, woman, if that dinner isn't ready by the time we're ready for it!" he intoned.

"It will be," I assured him more confidently than I felt, and hurried to the kitchen upon the word Lillian was close at my heels, and Katie looked up startled as we fairly burst into the kitchen.

Katie Prepared

"You matter? Ees house on fire?" she said with an engaging grin that robbed the words of the insolence which I knew was unintentional.

"We'll all have to move as fast as if it were Katie," Lillian said, and I explained quickly about the request our husbands had made for an early dinner.

"If there's anything we can do to help you, Katie, tell us now," I said. "And if you have planned any dish that will take too long in the cooking, put it aside for tomorrow, and substitute something else."

"Me, I already do dot," she said loftily. "Ven I see dose mens drive in, I know by shoost looking dot dere ribs vas hitting dere backbones, und I start changing tings round.

"I no haf to change mooch," she went on reassuringly. "Me, I planned scolloped potatoes und broiled steak for main dish, und dose potatoes I always cook ahead of time, because it no hurt dem to stand und varm oop at last meenit. My salad und dessert und part of my fruit cup all feexed. Und I tell dot Jeem get me some fresh asparagus out of garden. Ma, I vas going haf sometings else for vegetable—ve haf asparagus efery night dees week, but eef eat ees hurry oop dinner, dere's nodings so qveek."

They Help Katie

"And nothing so nice," I said quickly. "Everybody is fond of it, and the season for having it straight from our own garden is so short that we do not get tired of it."

"Tell Jim to cut a bushel or so extra for the Underwoods," Lillian interposed. "Remember, we haven't been at the farm for months, and the thought of that asparagus, of Jim's, cooked in Katie's way, makes me a bit balmy in the head."

Katie giggle as she opened the kitchen door.

"You'll keel me sometimes," she said, laughing. "You so foony, Missis Underwood."

"I know, Katie," Lillian returned gravely, "I must remember 'not to be as funny as I can'. But, isn't there something we can do?"

"Sure ting," Katie responded. "You kin set table, und ven asparagus coom in, you kin help feex set. I got plenty boiling vater in kettle, so eet no take long. Ve haf dinner time dose men get downstairs. You see."

Your Health

BY DR. R. S. COPELAND

Headache.

THERE IS one human ailment that few of us escape. Almost everybody suffers from an occasional headache. Because of the suffering due to this symptom, some persons are at times unable to work. No matter how slight it may be, its very persistence interferes with happiness and efficiency.

For one who is troubled this way, it is wise to watch the diet. Simple foods, including vegetables and fresh fruits, lessen the work of the digestive organs.

A persistent headache may sometimes be traced to a disturbance in the nasal sinuses. These are the bony cavities that open into the nose. They are lined with mucous membrane identical and continuous with that lining the nasal passages.

The openings from the sinuses into the nose are very narrow. Because of this fact, if the tissues in that region become congested and swollen, the passages are closed. Then the secretions are dammed back, the sinus cavities failing to drain. It is not long until there is enough pressure to produce pain with great distress.

Sinus trouble, when it is really the cause of the headache, is likely to cause morning pain. Later in the day the swelling grows less and the secretions drain away, relieving the pressure. Often there is difficulty in reading and doing fine work. This indicates that the headache comes from eyestrain.

It is surprising how much discomfort results from strained eyes, headache being one of its conspicuous symptoms. In all probability there is a need for glasses.

It is a common thing, too, to have nausea and loss of appetite from uncorrected eyestrain. Many a person goes about half sick, when all the symptoms would disappear by wearing the proper glasses. It is probable, in this case, they would need to be worn for close work only.

We are not likely to suffer from any unpleasant symptoms, or to be conscious of our bodies, if we live as we should. When from any cause the powers of resistance are lowered, then it is that eyestrain or sinus trouble or temporary lack of elimination will produce discomfort.

I wish I could impress upon every reader the importance of sunlight, fresh air, a reasonable amount of exercise, plain food and plenty of sleep. Then if the elimination is watched and any apparent physical defect corrected, our lives will be comfortable and happy.

WORK IN MISSION FIELDS DISCUSSED

Wife of Methodist Bishop Is to Speak Here

The work being done in the mission fields in South America was told by Senora Minnie R. de Gattinoni, wife of the Methodist bishop of South America, in an informal talk last night at Epworth M. E. church.

She emphasized the work among the Indians in Bolivia and the interest taken in the work by the young people of that country. During a round-table discussion she responded to questions regarding the climate, customs and characteristics of the people of her country.

Mrs. Gattinoni and her husband came to this country in February and until then, she explained, she had never seen snow. The trip marked her first visit to the United States and in discussing the weather conditions, said that it is only for a few days in the year that they ever experience weather as warm as yesterday's.

Bishop Gattinoni and his wife are parents of 10 children. They are attending the Methodist general conference in session at Columbus.

The speaker was presented under the auspices of the Go Ye Therefore circle of Foreign Missions, a group of young women in the church.

Marion's softball season was officially opened last night as eight teams of Sunday school league No 1 went into action on four city parks With the weatherman in accord the softball teams experienced the first opening on schedule in several years

Four more softball games will be offered Marion fans tonight when teams of the Sunday school league No 2 meet on diamonds throughout the city Commercial league teams are set to open their season Thursday night

It was in the final inning that the Lee Streeters came from behind to score the tieing and winning run after their early lead had been wiped out in Presby's last two rounds at bat The teams both rated highly as pennant contenders battled through seven innings that gave fans a colorful display of softball Lowery Vestal and Lindsay took alternate mound assignments for the Presbys while Crabtree went the route for the Lee Street aggregation

Errorless in the field the Reformed team collected eight hits to score a 2 to 0 victory at the expense of the Trinity team In addition to his fine pitching performance Schwaderer batted out the hit that accounted for his teams initial score in the third inning The only other score came in the final stanza when Knickle banged a three base hit and scored on Byers fly to deep right field Trinity failed to score on six scattered hits

In a free hitting game the St Mary squad walked to a 14 to 8 victory over Epworth No 1 Epworth's big challenge came in the third inning when the team pushed over seven runs only to trail St Mary's 10 tallies scored in the first three innings Snyder and Gamble were nicked for 15 hits by the St Mary batters and the Epworth team accounted for 12 hits off Gunder and F Robbins

Allowing only one hit M Snyder turned in a brilliant performance as he hurled the Forest Lawn team to a 4 0 win over the Epworth Seniors Marquis Epworth third baseman tripled when he went to bat at the start of the seventh The scoring possibility was erased as Snyder fanned the three following batters Forest Lawn's scores were registered one each in the first and fifth innings and two in the final frame

Goose Still Hangs High

OUT TO SET A NEW MARK BY PLAYING IN HIS 4TH STRAIGHT WORLD SERIES

THAT grand old bird with the elongated beak Goose Goslin the Goose from Detroit is one of the great veterans of modern baseball Goslin has been in the big show for nearly a decade and a half yet major league moundsmen will tell you that they would rather face almost any other batter than the Goose in the pinches

For it seems that the guy with the Durante schnozzola has always possessed the happy faculty of coming through in the clutch which translated from the baseballese means that he is dangerous under pressure and is most likely to hit when a hit is most needed

No better demonstration of the Gooses talents as a money player could be wished for than his game winning bingle in the ninth inning of the final game in last years world series Just when a hit was needed to put the series on dry ice for the Tigers Goslin was the man to come through with the blow that made him the series hero

The fiery old guy with the prominent proboscis has been counted out by the wiseacres at the start of each of the past couple of seasons but though he has slowed up considerably and is not the consistent cluster of old the Geese's contagious fighting spirit makes him of more value to the team than the younger men who try to oust him from his regular outfield post

Goslin is now determined to set a new mark by playing in his fourth straight world series and it is close to an even money bet that he'll do that very thing

Tigers Trim Indians To Reenter First Division

Things are looking a bit brighter in the camp of the champion Detroit Tigers

Harried by early season injuries and form reversals the Tigers have had a tough time of it thus far but there is reason today for Mickey Cochrane to contemplate with a little more hope the burning days ahead the gruelling days of summer when Mickey asserts the team with class and endurance will step out front

Two ball players Tommy Bridges and Irving Burns are the reasons for the new bit of optimism Bridges a mainstay of the pitching staff last season had three defeats and only one victory to his credit until yesterdays game with the Cleveland Indians when he came into his own to pitch five hit ball and win 8 to 3

Burns a weakling at bat since he jumped from a substitute berth with the Browns to fill the important shoes of Hank Greenberg the Tiger first baseman who suffered a broken wrist showed his first burst of power with the club getting a home run and a single in four trips to the plate

The victory enabled the Tigers to climb back into the first division as they unleashed batting power all down the line Al Simmons got three hits one a triple in four times at bat The Detroit Jockeys also were in fine fettle driving Johnny Allen who was driven from the box after four innings so that the temperamental pitcher wanted to punch Del Baker Tiger third base coach and Cochrane

The Phillies took advantage of the short right field fence at Baker field to drive out five home runs but the Giants also took advantage of it in the ninth to land the blow that gave them a 13-12 victory It was a hectic ball game in which the lead changed five times and eight pitchers saw duty five for the Giants a total of 31 hits were made with the Phillies getting 16

Mel Ott who drove in a total of eight runs altogether banged the go,off homer in the last inning with two on two out and the Giants trailing by two runs Manager Bill Terry of the New York team who is leading both leagues with a batting average of .538 got three hits for a perfect day at bat

The Chicago White Sox rode a barrage of 22 hits eight for extra bases to a 19-8 triumph over the St Louis Browns It was the 13th straight defeat for Rogers Hornsby's team

The Brooklyn Dodgers held scoreless for eight innings tied the score with the Boston Bees in the first half of the ninth and then lost the game when the Bees scored again in their half for a 2-1 victory Babe Phelps single tied up the score for the Dodgers but Wally Berger who had opened with a single scored the Bees winning tally when Ben Geraghty threw wild to the plate

In an exhibition game the Red Sox downed the Pirates 11 6 scoring seven runs in the seventh inning

THREE-INNING RALLY BRINGS VICTORY FOR COLUMBUS RED BIRDS

Wallop Kansas City, 10 3, St Paul Has Close Call in Duel With Colonels

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO May 12—The St Paul Saints and the fans who are backing them to win the American Association title had their fingers crossed today

The Saints won their sixteenth straight game yesterday but they had a close call in their 11 inning duel with the Louisville Colonels With the score tied at 2 all going into the last of the eleventh Jackie Warner Saints second baseman cracked a double to score a mate who had walked giving the league leaders a 3-2 decision

Lou Fette St Paul right hander won his sixth straight game The victors now are five games short of tying the circuit consecutive victory streak made by Milwaukee in 1926

Kansas City took a 10 3 beating from Columbus as the winners scored all of their runs in the final three innings

Milwaukee went into a virtual second place tie with Kansas City by defeating Indianapolis in 11 innings 10 to 9 Lindel Stortis eighth home run of the season with Chet Lanbs on first ended the battle

Toledo also came from behind to win from the Minneapolis Millers 11 to 10 The Hens rallied for four runs in the ninth

JOE KOPECKY FLOORS LARUE IN MAT TILT; FRANKIE HILL WINS

Wrestle Fans See New Hold, 'Crucifix' Applied in Preliminary Match

Joe Kopecay of Jackson Miss showed Marion fans just how rough and tough a southern gentleman can be when he pummelled and pounded his way to a win over Johnny LaRue of Dallas Tex in one of the featured wrestle bouts at the Shovel gymnasium last night

Frankie Hill the Hollywood Calif youngster registered the second fall over Martino Angelo of Buffalo N Y after the latter was disqualified in the first round by Referee Tom Temple Referee Temple awarded the first fall to Hill after repeated warnings to Angelo

Jack Curtis gave fans a demonstration of a new hold which even the older enthusiasts here couldn't recall having seen Curtis scored a 11 minute fall over Jack Carson in the 20-minute preliminary match with the crucifix. Resting on one knee Curtis stretched his opponent across his back and by pulling down with one of his arms on either side put on a neat backbreaker

LaRue used 17 minutes in flooring Kopecky for the first fall LaRue chinlifted Kopecky to the mat three times in succession in the second round but the Mississippian came back to win with the crab hold at the end of 11 minutes Kopecky used the same hold to gain the final and deciding fall at the end of three minutes

Angelo's rough display lasted just 10 minutes before Referee Temple disqualified him Hill then broke out of Angelo's hammerlock and scored the deciding fall by head butting his opponent to the mat and pinning him in 11 minutes

Next week weather permitting the wrestling program will be held at the outdoor arena on Uncapher avenue
